

Please do not tamper with New Jersey's DO NOT CALL LIST. If the people of NJ want a stronger law than that of the federal government we should be allowed to make that decision. Life in New Jersey can be very stressful what with our extremely high property taxes, car insurance rates and high cost of living. We deal with urban and suburban sprawl and our roads and highways are a nightmare of congestion. Let us have peace in our homes, please.